CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadlines:

March 15th 2008 for the abstracts submission,

April 30th 2008 for last registration,

June 30th 2008 for full paper submission to the Journal of Planar Chromatography.

The scientific symposium program will feature invited keynote speakers, selected submitted lectures and poster presentations. contributions are invited from all areas of thin-layer chromatography, but especially from colleagues working in the pharmaceutical, food, environmental and medical fields. Papers on theory, method development, validation, instrumental methods, hyphenated techniques, and quantitative applications in all areas of chemistry would be most welcome. Colleagues wishing to participate in the scientific program should submit a brief abstract to the scientific committee, committee@hptlc.com, stating whether they wish to present an oral or poster paper. Abstract should be no more than 250 words and 2 pictures in a MS Word file (presentation in arial, 12, justified). The abstract should indicate the title, the authors names (with the presenting author underlined), affiliation (with e-mail address) and a brief description of the work to be presented. The Journal of Planar Chromatography will publish all full papers received before the deadline in a special issue dedicated to this symposium.
